

Part 2 - Step 2: 'Dream Journal' Exercise Page

Night 1 ☐ Night 2 ☐

Date: _____

This Journal Page allows you to record your dreams - you can also use a voice recorder or a personal journal. Please print more than one page just in case you remember more dreams! Handwriting is encouraged on these pages or in a personal notebook or diary - this to ensure your brain patterns remain in a more relaxed and less distracted state than if you choose to enter your journal on a device or on a computer directly after waking.

Write your dream here. Remember, be sure to record how your dream feels. Write it exactly as you experience it. Draw if you need to. Include details and impressions.

Part 4, Step 1: 'Dream Symbols' Exercise Page

Below are 8 common dream symbols. Symbols are the language of your subconscious, and your dreams are made up of context, relationships, feelings and contextual images.

Note the 8 symbols below. Write how they make you feel, and what they mean to you.

Think of 8 dream symbols - be spontaneous! Don't think too hard. Draw the first 8 meaningful symbols that you can think of ..or that come to you. Trust your mind.

Part 5, Step 2: Bridge of Consciousness Affirmation

Now you have completed the Part 5, Step 1 meditation you will need to wait until you are sitting in bed to complete this next part. Print 2 copies of this page - one for each night.

Take this page to bed with you and close your eyes. Remember the meditation. Remember how it felt. Remember the bridge. Keep your eyes close and relax. Focus on remembering the meditation, your feelings and the bridge for about 5 minutes. Then, when you are ready, draw the symbol and write the following phrases 3 times in the boxes below:

“I choose to remember by dreams. I am ready to remember my dreams.

I instruct my subconscious mind to show me my dreams.”
